"Sandbag, Stage Left"

"Sandbag, Stage Left"

Sophomore Semi

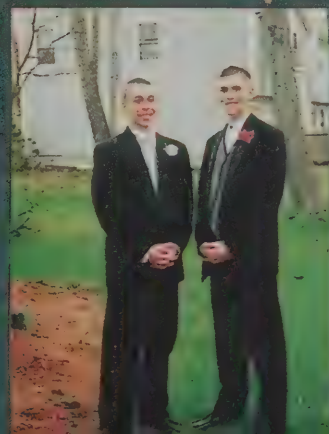

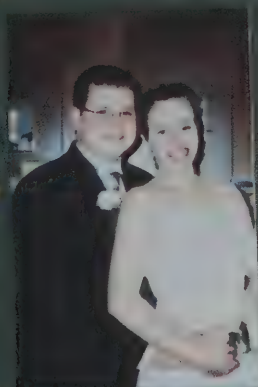

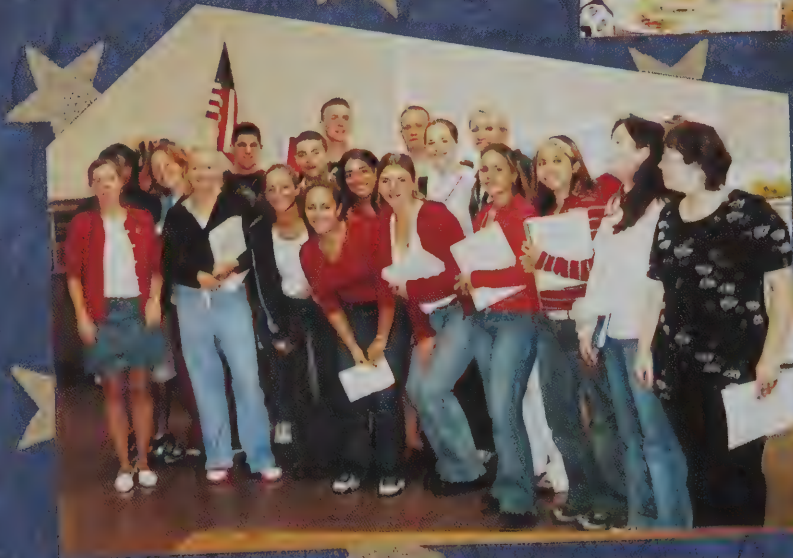

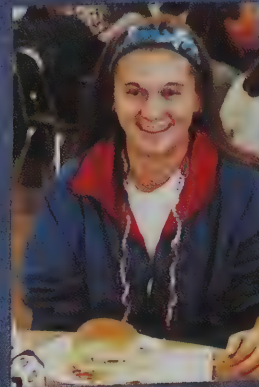

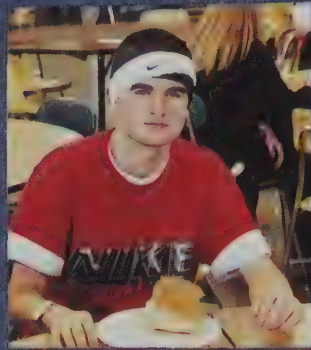

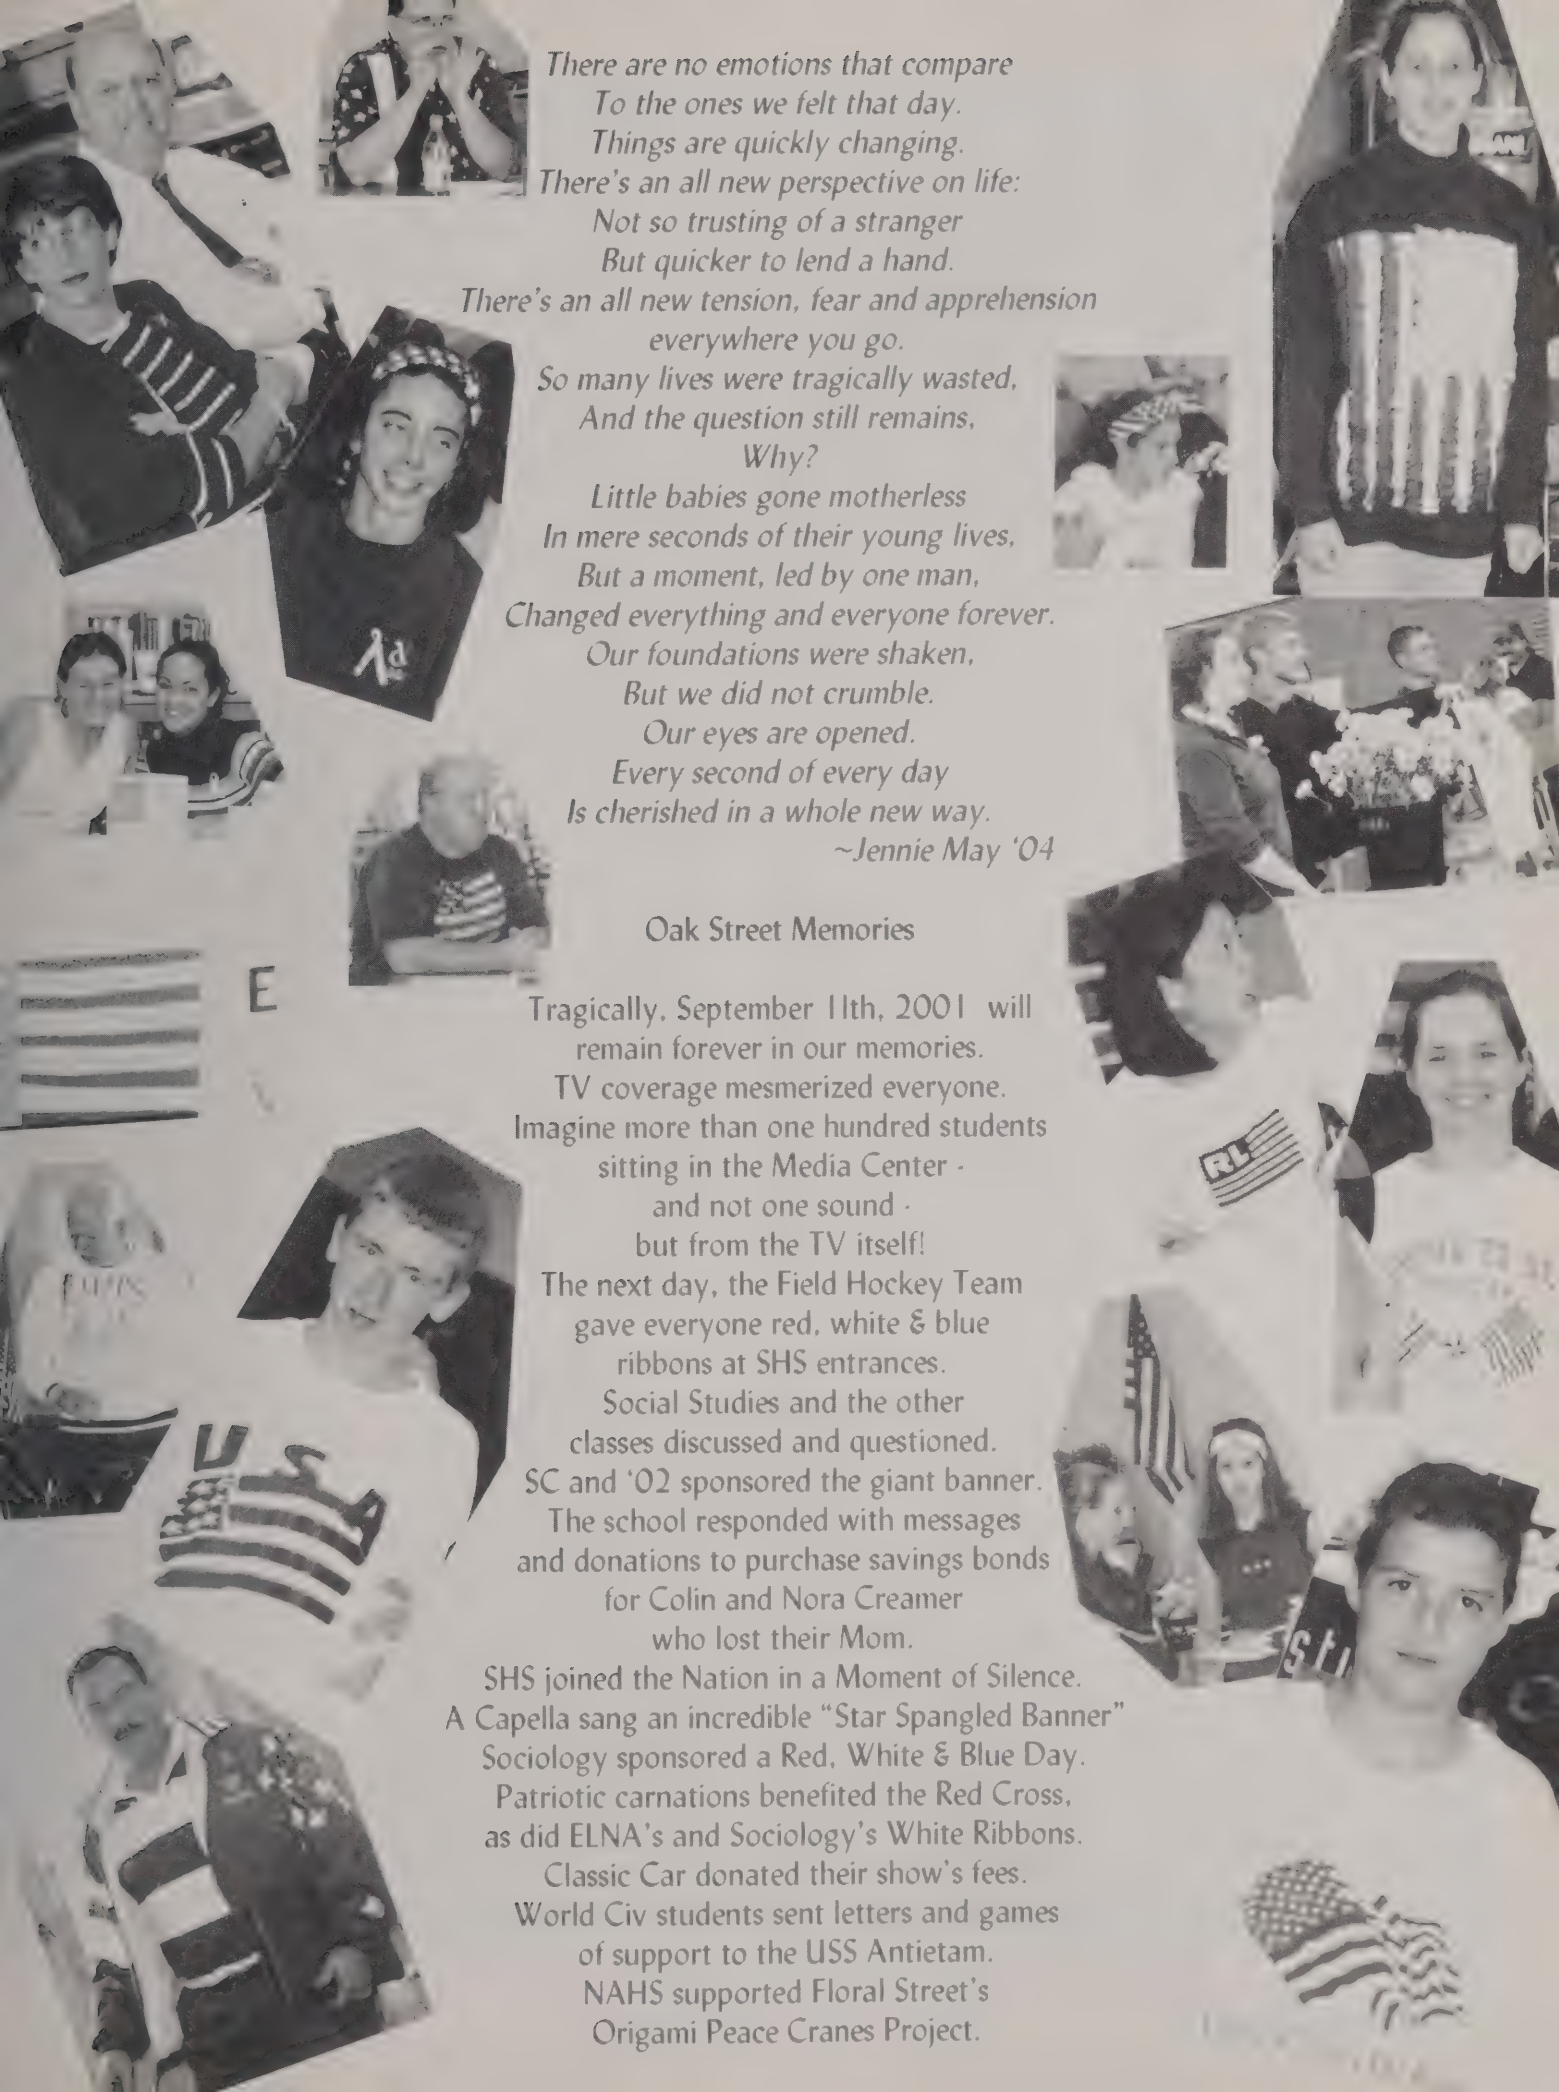

April 7, 2000

*There are no emotions that compare
To the ones we felt that day.
Things are quickly changing.
There's an all new perspective on life:
Not so trusting of a stranger
But quicker to lend a hand.
There's an all new tension, fear and apprehension everywhere you go.*

*So many lives were tragically wasted,
And the question still remains,
Why?*

*Little babies gone motherless
In mere seconds of their young lives,
But a moment, led by one man,
Changed everything and everyone forever.
Our foundations were shaken,
But we did not crumble.
Our eyes are opened.
Every second of every day
Is cherished in a whole new way.*

Oak Street Memories

Tragically, September 11th, 2001 will remain forever in our memories. TV coverage mesmerized everyone. Imagine more than one hundred students sitting in the Media Center - and not one sound - but from the TV itself!

The next day, the Field Hockey Team gave everyone red, white & blue ribbons at SHS entrances.

Social Studies and the other classes discussed and questioned. SC and '02 sponsored the giant banner. The school responded with messages and donations to purchase savings bonds for Colin and Nora Creamer who lost their Mom.

SHS joined the Nation in a Moment of Silence. A Capella sang an incredible "Star Spangled Banner" Sociology sponsored a Red, White & Blue Day. Patriotic carnations benefited the Red Cross, as did ELNA's and Sociology's White Ribbons. Classic Car donated their show's fees. World Civ students sent letters and games of support to the USS Antietam. NAHS supported Floral Street's Origami Peace Cranes Project.

Oak Street Memories

Sometimes, the Yearbook receives "candid" depicting our Seniors as they showed an early interest in sports.

On occasion, they have accurately predicted these very same persons as they appear in the pages following.

Others, share favorite sports related moments through the years up and to the present!

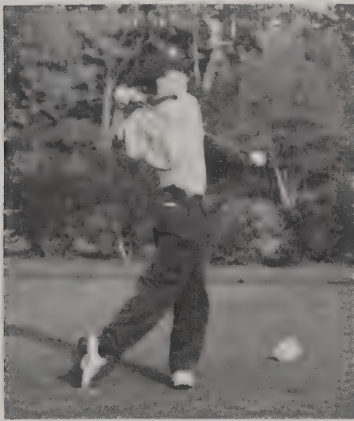

SHS Golf

The 2001 Fall Golf season was a successful one. Mike Sigismondo, Ryan Hawley and S.J. Turnblom had impeccable seasons, earning league all-star status in Mid-Wach A. Co-captain Mike Mahoney's leadership qualities on and off the golf course helped the Colonials win the League Title. Freshmen Tim West and Tim Harrington made awesome contributions this year. After an 11-4 season the Colonials hope to recapture the title next year.

Of fifteen tournaments, Mike Sigismondo was medalist in seven with cards of 36-41. Other medalists were S.J. Turnblom, Mike Mahoney, Mike Mitrowski, Tim West. SHS won the Finalists Award at Districts (2nd out of 14 teams) qualifying Ryan Hawley and Mike Sigismondo for States. State results at Salem Country Club: Shrewsbury finished 7th out of fifteen teams.

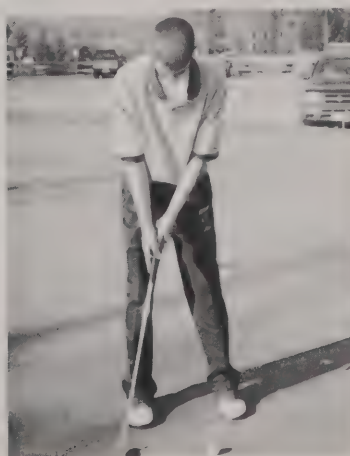

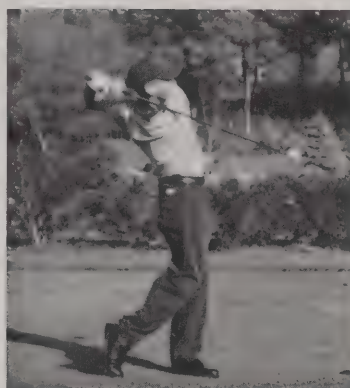

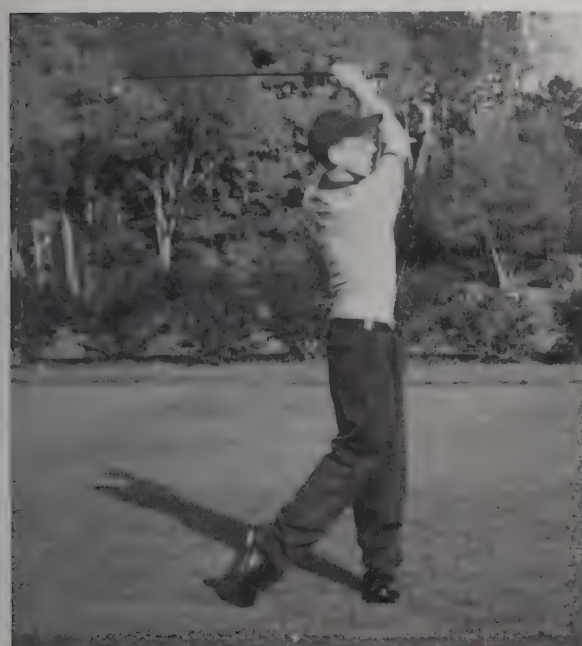

-Mike Sigismondo

Seniors who will be missed: Nicole Elworthy, Kate Saba, Elise Conley, Meg Hogan, Becky Rossi, Ani Shapazian and Natalie Speicher. The team laughed and cried together: a "family" throughout the season, helping them to overcome their "battles" Their creative outfits will be greatly missed! Best of luck to the 2002 Team!

SHS Volleyball

Experience is the passport to wisdom - live what you learn, and the most important lessons are never lost. With the fall season coming to a close, the Girls' Varsity Volleyball Team wrapped up their season of 5 and 11. Shrewsbury beat Leominster, Hudson, St. Peter Marian with the help of Co-Captains Annemarie Korzon and Tin-Zar Aung as well as key players Andrea Altomari, Tabitha Kroll, Thin Aung and Shannon Stoll.

Next year, the team will be losing seven seniors (three of whom have been together since the beginning of the four year old SHS Volleyball Team: Tin-Zar Aung, Colleen Early and Annemarie Korzon have continued what Julia LeBlanc, SHS '99, and Allison Ward '00, started in 1999.) Also graduating are Andrea Altomari, Jessica Curry, Lisa Peraino and Carrie Rutkowski. With that in mind, Coach Kennedy and the returning varsity members will focus on carrying on the SHS Volleyball traditions in the years to come. Thank OLGA and take good care of her. Good luck to all!

-Annemarie Korzon & Tin-Zar Aung

This year's JV Volleyball team was definitely a young team, consisting of three sophomores and ten freshmen. It was led by Co-captains Jenn Guenette and Jenna Rutkowski. Lauren Kennedy was the new JV Coach. The team finished 2 and 14, but are hoping for a stronger team and better season next year.

SHS Boys' Soccer

The season started off extremely well with a 4-0 victory over Marlboro. In his first year, Coach Dominic Conte (aka "Mimo") set the high standard of reaching the districts

After many years of hard work, sweat, and blood, the boys had yet to come close to giving Wachusett a game. This year was different. The boys dug deep and left everything on the field both times and tied the Mountaineers twice! The season record was 3 - 11 - 4.

Seniors Ryan Bennett, Paddy McParland, Kev Sanavage, Greg Gicas, Chris Rinkus and Ozzy Langroudi left on a high note. Captains Bennett, McParland and Sanavage were key factors in the Colonials success. Good luck to the Seniors and Coach Conte and next year's returning team. And a special thanks to the best managers in Colonial History Kate Linehan and Jen Barhoff.

~ Ryan Bennett

JV Boys' Soccer: Juniors John Ahern, Mike Bonanno, Chris Trott; Sophomores Eric Hansson, Tushar Patel, Kirby Pierre-Louis, Dan Sousa; Freshmen Jesse Brady, Nick Day, David George, Matt Mantyla, Matt Morano, Tom Mosakowski, Mark O'Brien, Brian Richard, Pat Ryan, Steve Sabourin, Shane Speicher, Matt Swiatowski, Nick Theodoss, Tyler Wams.

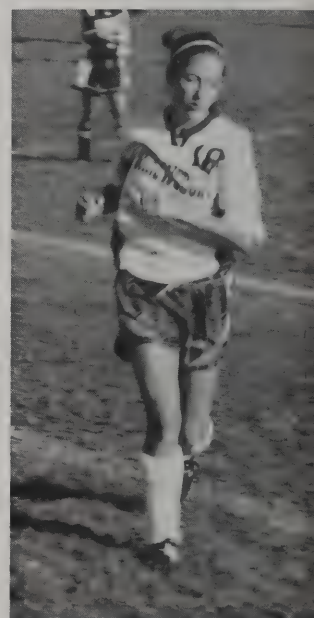

There are no two ways about it. The Girls' Varsity Soccer Team has had a successful season. Under the strong leadership of Beth Garvey (7) and Marissa Alarie (9), the girls made their way to the districts. With the brick wall defense of Carol Sogigian (5), Beth, Marissa, Kristen Narolewski (16) and new found Goal keeper Monique Query, the girls managed to keep the opposition out of the back and create action on the other team's half.

Lead goal scorers were Danielle Cuénoud (18), Jess Beauregard (22), Sara Batbouta (11), Lauren Duval (8), and Regina Wilson (17). The team finished their last home game with Sarah O'Brien breaking her leg in two places and Marissa breaking a rib!

Rookies Kate Gardner (19), Gina Esposito (4), Julie Neafsey (21), Heather Melander (13), Regina Wilson (17), Lauren Duval (8), and Goalkeeper Katherine Comeau all proved to be worthy players along with Nikki Alarie (6), Sara Carbone (15), Stefanie DiReda (3), Corrine Simisky (2), and Jen Stencel (14).

Coach is Mr. Traina, and Manager is Kellie Dunn.

SHS Girls' Soccer

SHS Boys' Crew

In the wake of yet another enormously successful fall season, the Boys' Crew Team pauses to reflect upon not only their victories, but also upon the memorable pasta parties, bus rides, and frisbee games they shared. As far as statistics are concerned, the first varsity boat had an excellent season, placing 3rd of 25 boats at the Textile Regatta; 9th of 39 at the Head of the Connecticut; 3rd of 33 at the New Hampshire Championships, and 1st at the Massachusetts Public Schools Regatta on Lake Quinsigamond. They also competed in the internationally renowned Head of the Charles (but, did not place particularly well - quite frankly, we were awful, but we had a good time).

The second varsity boat also placed respectably in many races. Their best showing was a powerful 3rd place finish at the MA Regatta. While the world-renowned excellence of these oarsmen deserves acclaim, so does the strength and unity of the team. The friendships made on this team are truly special to us and can be seen both in and out of school. Finally, the boys would like to thank their coaches, Mrs. Krause and Mr. Butterfield, for giving their time and effort in making this a season to remember.

SHS Girls' Crew

When you see two big burly men sitting in launches screaming at girls in "banana boats", you know you've reached the home of the Girls' Crew Team. Although one of the lesser publicized sports, crew is one of the most trying, team-centered sports. Whether we were "sight-seeing" and catching octopi, going for runs at insane paces, or pulling our butts off for three miles, the girls' crew team always managed to have fun. Under the leadership of Captains Caroline Ballou, Cheryl Cox and Courtney Cronin, the girls did EXCEPTIONALLY well this year: both first and second boats medaled at the New Hampshire Championships on October 13, 2001.

Do we owe it all to our coaches Mr. Krause and Abe? Or do we owe it to ourselves, our perseverance and our willingness to do jumpies and "Power tens"? Some call it torture - and maybe we are masochists. But we always keep in mind: "The harder the stroke, the happier the coxswain." (The little girl who yells at you to push harder and follow because her hips are hurting - can we please go in now?) Girls' Crew - truly a way of life!

- Caroline Ballou

SHS Boys' Cross Country

Last year's accomplishments (turned this year's goals) motivated and inspired this team to reach those goals. A very likely return trip to the State Meet in November was pushing everyone. Captains Jon Burkett, Adam Maroney and Brendan Nemes led this team to strive for success.

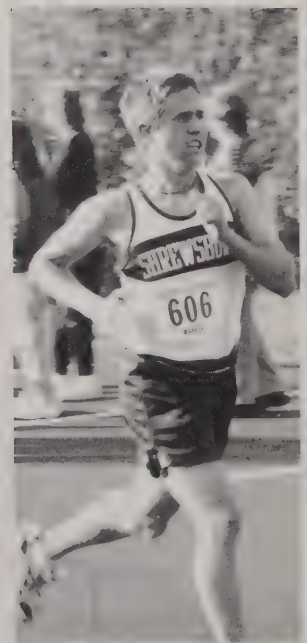

Matt Kinback followed by Jeff Hayes were key in the scoring of races. Sophomores Kurt Gustafson and Andy O'Brien finished out the top seven along with Senior Ryan Mauro. Freshmen Andy Rossi and Eric Mitchell made strong contributions and have potential to lead the team in the future.

Coach is Dr. Jim Smith

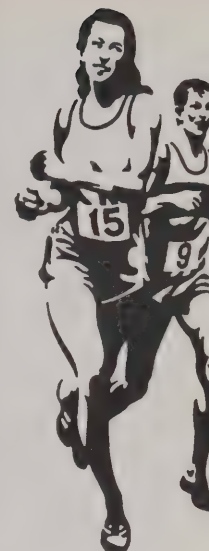

SHS Boys' Cross Country (in addition): Senior Mike Robinson, Sophomores Chuck Maguire, Brian Buckley, Matt Dell'Erba, Andy O'Brien; Freshmen Jacques Aubuchon, John McKenna.

The SHS Boys' Cross Country Team after the Spirit of Shrewsbury 5K race, which supported Special Olympics. SHS Principal Mr. Gutekanst also ran in the race.

SHS Girls' Cross Country

This year, the SHS Girls' Cross Country Team started out with a "bang". This has been one of their strongest seasons with a record of 6-1 and placing second in the League after running an awesome race at Tufts.

The home course is 3.1 miles around scenic Dean Park, where the team shows they have the advantage. These runners are led by Captains Kristin Koziara and Marcella Corcoran.

Juniors are Becca Pugliese and Heather Mantyla. Sophomores are Stephanie Lubke, Jen Stacey, Sari Haime, Haniyah Kafel, Cassie Upton, Julie Goodness and Akosua Dwumfour. Freshmen newcomers are Miranda Cruz and Amanda L'Bassi.

The girls walked in the Cure for Cancer Walkathon at U Mass on Labor Day raising money for the important cause. Coach is Peggy Holdash

SHS Fall Cheerleading

The 2001 Football Cheering season began long before September. Tryouts were held in June and practices began immediately. The team practiced several times a week in order to prepare for camp during the first week of July. Our team performed very well there, leaving with three trophies. Varsity won 1st place overall (in our division), for the final evaluation on the last day of camp. SHS also won 2nd place overall (in the entire camp) for our routine. A 3rd trophy was earned by our JV team as they swept through the JV division and won 1st place in the final evaluation.

Three all-stars were selected from our team: Captains Alexis Bradley, Lauren Demers and Deanna Joubert. The all-stars won the chance to cheer in London over Christmas break! The captains were also invited to participate in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade!

Our team is extremely hard-working and all of our efforts will shine through come tournament season. Let's see how many more trophies the team can earn.

Coming into the 2001 season, the Colonials had many obstacles to overcome. They were faced with the challenges of a new league, two new assistant coaches, defending a Super Bowl Championship, and the task of replacing several very talented seniors. Prior to the start of the season, many people outside the team doubted the Colonials' chances for success. However, the senior laden team was out to prove themselves once again.

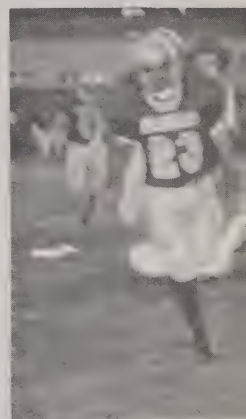

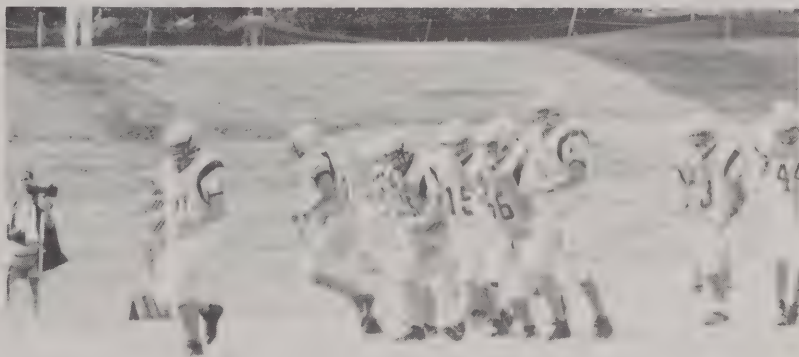

Coach Terry Walles had his team ready to play when they opened the season on the road at Westboro. The Colonials took care of the Rangers, as well as other non-league opponents, including Marlboro, Algonquin and Shepard Hill. Behind the leadership of Captains Billy Orfalea, Chris Lynch, Bryan Anderson and Landon LaPorte, the Colonials attacked a tough Division 1 schedule. While they suffered their first loss of the season at home versus town rival St. John's, they won thrilling victories over North Middlesex, Fitchburg, and St. Peter-Marian.

All sixteen seniors have major roles on the Colonial Team. Billy Orfalea has picked up right where Mario Johnson left off, running close to 200 yards per game. Leading Orfalea through the holes are fullbacks Shawn Weigold and Junior Dan Cronin. The middle of the line is back, center Nick Todisco, guards Mark DiMeco and Chris Lynch, as well as the addition of Tom Roddy and Ryan Powers at the tackle spots. The receiving corps is loaded with talent, consisting of speedster Bryan Anderson, Tom Crossman, Tim Ford, Matt Johnson and Landon LaPorte. Two talented seniors take over at quarterback: Dave Brewer and Billy Moynihan.

Coach Cosenza commandeers a fierce defense that returns eight starters: up front, defensive ends Landon LaPorte and Mike Maloney; Mark DiMeco and Ryan Powers man the tackle spots, while Junior Justin Clouthier takes over at nose guard. Outside linebackers are Dan Cronin, Sam Perotto, Nick Todisco and Shawn Weigold. At middle is Chris Lynch. The secondary is back with Tom Crossman playing safety; Bryan Anderson, Todd Cooksey and Billy Orfalea playing at the corner spots.

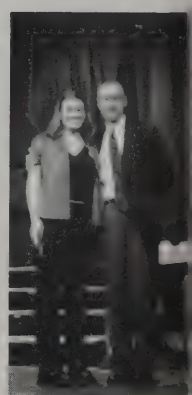

Shrewsbury is proving doubters wrong once again, as they continue their success, game in and game out..

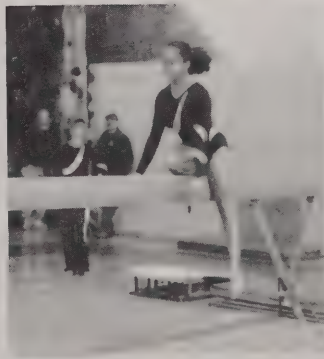

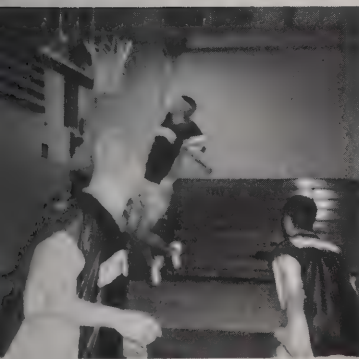

~ Chris Lynch

VERNAL POOLS

The Vernal Pools Society is a new Service Learning project at SHS. It was started with support from Ms. O'Connor, Biology Teacher, Mrs. Hagerman, a Biologist, and Julie Goodness, a student who has an interest in Vernal Pools. Vernal Pools are a special type of wetland. They are very valuable to the environment because there are a few kinds of animals such as Wood Frogs, Blue-spotted Salamanders, and Fairy Shrimp that need these vernal pools in order to procreate their species. Vernal Pools, or "big puddles in the woods", are very susceptible to development. When they are destroyed, the species that inhabit them disappear as well. The quest of the Vernal Pools Society is to identify vernal pools in Shrewsbury and certify them so that they can be protected. Certification grants that no one can build within 100 feet of the pool. Julie Goodness and Laurie Fazzouli are the lead students in the Vernal Pools Society. Additional members are Yang Long, YinYan Li, Angela Ciociolo, Sarah Thoman, Yoojin Kwak, Jean Slavkovsky, James Hagerman, Nick Shuster, Adrienne Zillmann, Yuewei Wu, John Lindeborg,

Well boys, I don't really know where to start. Entering freshman year in high school, I don't think any of us knew it would be the fastest four years of our life. Towards the end of sophomore year, and beginning of junior year, we started getting our licenses and before you knew it we had vehicles and were spending more time with our true friends. When I finally got the crew together, off the ground, and hard at work, it was junior year by that time. Our first employee, still with us after two years, is Ryan Bennett. I can't say enough about Ryan except he is a great guy, and always full of laughs. One shed job was enough for Ryan, Brent Mawdsley, and Myself. After Brent drew the prints up and we got a start date, we were ready to roll. As with anything, nothing goes perfect but in the end it always gets completed and completed well. Next on the crew were Jeff Barrel Boy Baril, and Steve Theo Theoharides. I remember the call to build a deck for a fellow classmates' family in school, so Jeff, Steve, and I decided to take the job. That was by far the most memorable and fun job I've ever worked on and I think we all had a blast. Once winter came around, and building was coming to an end for the year we started snow removal. Chris Lynch and Bryan Anderson are among the best out there. You two guys work like a finely tuned machine! Ryan Bigda is also one of our best because his work ethic is very strong. As long as he doesn't have to be there before 12:00 Noon, he is all set. There are also the other guys that couldn't make picture day, but were a big contribution to all of our jobs. Thank you guys for all the help and memories throughout high school. Good luck to all of you in your future plans, and, I will leave you with a few quotes..."Don't fall off roofs, Nail Guns are Dangerous, Watch out for flying munchkins, Operation Hard Hat Area, Sup Buddy, What's the Good Word?, House on the Woods, Dusting Nomes in Winter Time, Ranger Days, F-250 Heavy Duty Days, the Slug, the Shagon Wagon's, and of course, Corporate Colors..." Good luck guys, and take care.

Can't believe this time is here
Seems like yesterday you were so small
As we look back on all you've done
You really have stood tall.

You have some wonderful qualities
Curiosity, discipline, perseverance come to mind
We are so proud that you're our son
A better one is hard to find.

You've set some lofty goals
Confident that they were achievable
You've soared so high so many times
That you're just like an "eagle".

We got through all those baseball games
It wasn't meant for you
But you discovered your passion
In the fast-paced sport of crew.

You are so very talented
From academics to playing saxophone
And after your dedication to robotics
It was nice to have you home!

We've laughed a lot at the dinner table
We're a crazy bunch of diners
Enduring all Dad's corny jokes
And your very funny one-liners!

Your sisters, they look up to you
You're a tough act to follow
You've set such a fine example
Of promises for tomorrow.

We'll miss you, Mike, so very much
We wish you luck, success, and joy
You'll travel down some brand new roads
Let's hope the first of those is "Hoy".

Dear John,

To live a successful life
Does not require
Money, fame, power, prestige
Or status symbols . . .

It's more a matter of
Being true to your own beliefs and principles,
Doing your best,
Even in the smallest of things,
And never taking for granted
The simple joys in life -
Such as laughter, a perfect day,
Or a loyal friend.

For all the money in the world
Can't buy self-esteem, character,
Contentment, love or happiness -
And these are the very things
That make life
Worth living.

However you define
Happiness and success,
May you find and enjoy them
Every day of your life.

*We are so proud of you and the young man you have become!
All of our love always! Mom, Dad, Lauren, Matthew and Lily*

Bryan,

When we held you as a child,
It was like taking up in our arms
all of our hopes for the future.
We wondered then
who you would become,
and you haven't
let us down.

You are a person to be proud of.
You are sensitive, but strong,
with the courage to follow your own path.

Remember, we are always here
to encourage you,
to understand you,
to talk with you,
and to support you.

We can wish nothing more than that your life will hold a future of happiness.

We love you, and we're very glad you are our child.

My Best Friend Rachael

Today I met a great new friend
Who knew me right away
It was funny how she understood
All I had to say

She listened to my problems
She listened to my dreams
We talked about love and life
She'd been there too it seems

I never once felt judged by her
She knew just how I felt
She seemed to just accept me
And all the problems I'd been dealt

She didn't interrupt me
Or need to have her say
She just listened very patiently
And didn't go away

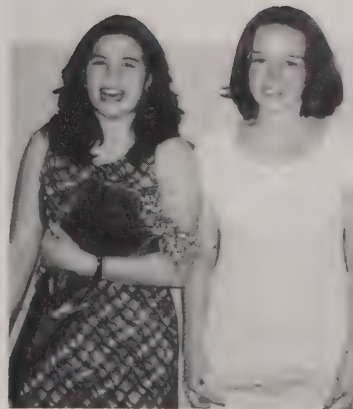

I needed her to understand
How much she meant to me
So when I went to hug her
I had to make her see

I wrapped my arms around her
Said I must be blessed from up above
Now she finally knew
What I felt for her was love.

Dear Kevin,

Remember when you told us how people were made? First, you said, you glue the bones together, then you paint the blood on and put the skin over, and then God puts the life in. God sure knew what He was doing when He put the life in you.

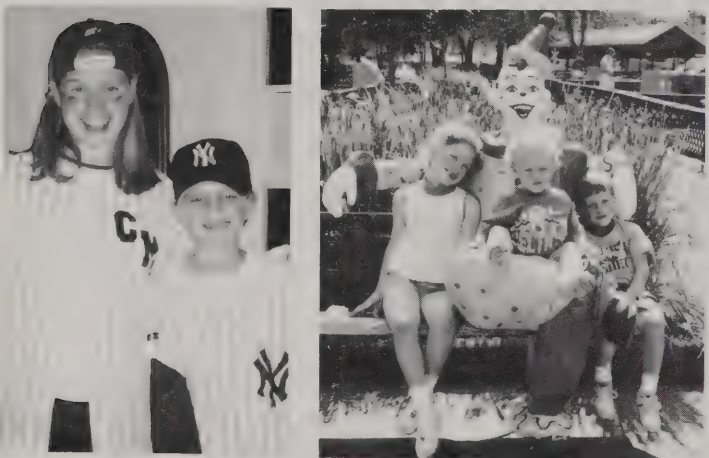

There are so many things that make you special: the way you always worry about everyone else; the empathy you have for the world around you, the talent you have for making people comfortable to be around you. Your capacity to love and be loved is overwhelming. A heart as open and generous as yours is a rare and wonderful thing. In short, you're one of the truly nicest people we know. As you move on into your future, whatever it may hold, we would like to leave you with these words of wisdom..... if you start to lose, don't whine.

All our love always, Mom, Dad, Jason and Katy

When you graduate from high school, you will have so many new changes and opportunities to look forward to. The one thing that doesn't change is the love from your family. I have watched you change from the annoying little brother that I always wanted to beat up on to a mature young man. We have had countless laughs and times when nobody else could understand us except for each other. I have loved watching you grow up and am so proud of your accomplishments. I love you!!

Val,
Dad and I wanted to let you know how very proud we are of you and all your accomplishments. To know you are going after your dreams is just as exciting to us as it is to you.

My Question is:

When did you become this wonderful young lady, when it only seems like yesterday you were my two year old little girl trying to make me breakfast? (Raw, partially scrambled eggs on the floor, the counter, the walls, and some in a bowl). Do you remember how you would never leave my side, or Dad's? Trying to get you out of the car at pre-school was a job in itself. When you were a little older you let Dad and me know that you were going to buy a house next door to us when you go to college.

Having a daughter like you is so very special. I look at you and your friends (who by the way are great kids), and can see that you and all of them are ready to set out for your dreams. Nervous, of course, that's to be expected, but more difficult because of the world today. But I feel very confident in all of you, and thank God there are people like you who can make America a great place to live!

Good luck

We love you, and God bless

SHS COLONIAL YEARBOOK XLIII

This 252nd page makes this edition the longest in memory Subscription remains at $30 per issue, which includes the Spring "Extra". SHS has placed an order for 775 copies from publisher Jostens. Mr. Dan Smith is their local representative.

Our Blue & Gold Foiled Cover carries the title "Oak Street Memories", a reminder that classes and activities, events and some sports are SHS's last at 45 Oak Street.

Shortly after classes began this year, we were shocked by the horrific terrorist attack on the US. Many pages document the effect September 11th, 2001 had on so many of us at SHS. Jostens' response was the special end sheets included in this volume.

This page includes one (of 33) pictograms created by Ms. Fried's class and scanned by Ms. Welch and NAHS. Additional pictures are of Staff at work on layouts and others of Staff in submitted candids.

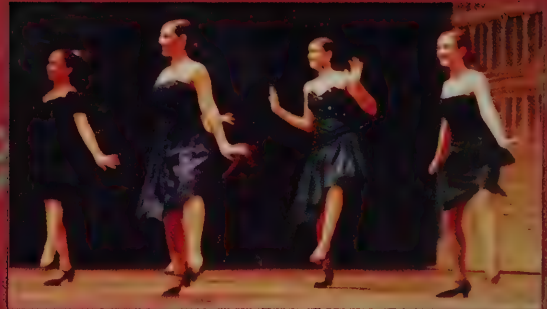

Last year, the Colophon page ended with the bare skeletal picture of the soon-to-be new SHS. Several pictures of the progress that has taken place since then can be found on previous pages. Here, instead, are pictures from December 19th, 2001: during this last deadline's work, SHS dealt with its first fire in recent memory, caused by a spark which ignited sawdust in the woodworking room. Pictures were taken by Junior Jason Walker (who is never without his camera) and Yearbook Advisor Mrs. O'Leary (who can nearly lay claim to the same).

The arrival of freshmen Vinh Tran and Nick Day added strength and stability to an already formidable roster. Tran, Tsuda and Day dominated at singles, while the doubles teams of Bernhard-Gieser and Lin-Mak had success on the Mid-Wach A tennis scene.
